"Suggest techniques for effectively integrating technology into a [subject] lesson."

Why it's a timesaver: With the rise of digital learning, integrating tech tools can enhance lessons. This prompt gives educators actionable methods tailored to their subject, bypassing hours of research on tech applications.

"Recommend books or resources suitable for [specific grade level, or adults] on [topic]."

Why it's a timesaver: Finding age-appropriate resources can be a challenge. This prompt provides educators with a curated list, saving them time scouring libraries or the internet.
"Provide classroom /zoom management strategies effective for large class sizes."

Why it's a timesaver: Managing larger classes requires distinct techniques. This prompt offers actionable strategies, enabling educators to maintain an effective learning environment without resorting to trial and error.

"Outline steps for creating a flipped classroom experience for [specific subject]."

Why it's a timesaver: Flipped classrooms (where students teach the teacher) are increasingly popular but need careful planning. This prompt gives educators a blueprint, speeding up the design phase and ensuring pedagogical effectiveness.
"Recommend ice-breaker activities for the first day of class suitable for [specific grade level or adults] and [subject]."

Why it's a timesaver: Building rapport early is key. This prompt provides educators with ready-to-implement activities, ensuring a positive start to the academic year without the time-consuming brainstorming.
