Remember to Feed your AI

Your AI is hungry. The more data and info you feed it as part of your prompting, the stronger it gets and the more it helps you.

Tell it about your job and project every time you prompt!

Keeping track of your progress can be motivational and also allows you to identify areas where you need improvement.

Prompt: "Create a template for tracking my daily drawing practice focusing on [skills or goals, e.g., 'improving line work']."

Getting into art communities or finding a mentor can offer you quicker feedback and improve your skills at a faster rate.

Prompt: "Draft an email template for reaching out to a potential art mentor in the [genre, e.g., 'comic book'] industry."

Making your artwork presentable for sharing or selling requires knowledge of how to properly document it.

Prompt: "Provide tips for photographing or scanning my drawings for an online portfolio."

Efficient organization of your artwork and supplies ensures you spend less time searching for things and more time drawing.

Prompt: "Suggest ways to organize my drawing space for maximum efficiency."

Reviewing your old work can provide insights into your progress and areas that need improvement, thus helping you focus your future practice.

Prompt: "Create a template for conducting monthly self-reviews of my drawing progress."
